READ WHY SAFEWAY CEILING PRICES ARE LOW

First, what is a ceiling price? A store's ceiling price is the highest price that may be charged by that particular store for those items governed by the ceiling price law.

Second, why aren't ceiling prices the same in all stores? Under the regulations each store establishes its own price ceilings within the limitations of the law. The ceiling price law fixes an amount above which prices may not go, but without restrictions as to how low prices may go.

Why Safeway ceiling prices are low! Because every Safeway price has been a very low price month after month, Safeway ceiling prices are actually very low. For years Safeway has waged war on needless waste in distributing foods... cut out unnecessary expense... eliminated frills. And the savings thus made have been shared with our customers by giving them low prices. The ceiling price regulations will not, in any way, alter Safeway's policy of bringing you the finest foods the markets offer at the lowest possible prices.

Safeway is cooperating with the Government's effort to prevent inflation by rigidly adhering to the spirit as well as the letter of the ceiling price regulations.

Prices in this ad are effective Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, in San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond, Hayward, and other offices and branches in San Mateo, Alameda & Contra Costa Counties.

Shop early in the week...avoid crowds...and save money, too!

... Your Government has asked that you voluntarily limit the eating of meat in your home to 2 1/2 pounds per person weekly. There is an ample supply of meat for everyone—it is just a matter of all of us doing our part to make it go around. Our Armed forces both here and abroad must have meat, and so must a hundred million Americans at home. If we all cooperate—if we all buy no more than our family's share—the distribution problem will solve itself and we will have made a definite contribution toward Victory.

William Powell Stars In New Film

William Powell returns to familiar ground in M-G-M's "Crossroads", a story of blackmail and intrigue which opens tonight at the Daly City theatre. Long absent from serious dramatic roles, Powell is afforded an excellent opportunity in the film and makes the most of it. Hedy Lamarr is teamed with Powell for the first time, while Claire Trevor and Basil Rathbone lead one of the year's outstanding supporting casts.

The action of the story takes place in Paris before the current war. Powell is a French diplomat happily married to Miss Lamarr. Just as he is made Ambassador to Brazil, an insidious blackmail plot is concocted against him by Rathbone and Miss Trevor. They present false proof that he is living under a false identity and is really a petty criminal who robbed and murdered a man fifteen years before. The situation of a man's past catching up with him to destroy all he holds dear is believably and most thrillingly presented, thanks to the expert direction of Jack Conway.

In the acting department the new picture shines with stellar brilliance.

Producer Edwin Knopf has shown careful judgment in tightening the story for a suspense effect. The sets are elaborate and the musical score by Bronislau Kaper lends just the right atmosphere to the story.

William Powell shows he has lost none of his flair for the dramatic and handles his difficult assignment with finesse. Miss Lamarr, looking more beautiful than ever in stunning creations by Kalloch, M-G-M designer, is sincere and dramatically effective as Powell's wife. Basil Rathbone and Claire Trevor are a smooth pair of blackmailers. Felix Bressart and Margaret Wycherly deserve special mention for their characterizations.

SHORT CUTS

THE next time you wish to deodorize your refrigerator, place a small lump of charcoal on a paper towel on the bottom shelf of the box. Allow the charcoal to remain in the box overnight and you will be pleased to find that next morning all traces of offensive odors will have disappeared.

For your coat of arms in War Bonds will help to build the planes and tanks that will insure defeat of Hitler and his Axis partners.

NEW ROMANTIC TEAM

A director's dream comes true when William Powell and Hedy Lamarr go into a clinch. That's exactly what they do in "Crossroads," new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer thriller which brings the two stars to the screen as a new romantic team. Above, Hedy and Bill get into the mood for a big love scene. The film is now playing at the Daly City theatre.

THE COFFEE BLUES

Now coffee, along with her oddly-assorted comrades—new automobiles, bicycles, gasoline, heavy rubber boots and shoes, tires, and typewriters—has the wistful charm of being officially declared hard-to-get. It seems to us that our morning cup never tasted and smelled so good as it did today. Grandfather was right when he said, "Blessings brighten as they pass."

One pound every five weeks is to be our ration. That means about forty cups, and forty cups for 35 days is going to make some drastic changes in the great American breakfast tradition. If you're a two- or three-cupper, and don't want the fatal November 29 to hit you all at once, now's the time to start tapering off.
